By law, all health care providers must provide to any employee, employer, worker's compensation insurer or their representative any information reasonably related to any alleged work injury. However, determining the relationship of prior medical records to a work injury can be difficult and time-consuming. Therefore, to assist in the timely investigation of your claim, this document authorizes the health care provider to release medical information without attempting to determine the extent of its relationship to your alleged work injury.

You are not required to sign this document. You may refuse to sign this document without jeopardizing your right to collect worker's compensation benefits. However, by assisting in the investigation of your claim, you are likely to receive benefits quicker than if you refuse to authorize the release of medical information.
